

2021 Good News Trivia Questions

1. Which singing artist released her first album in five years titled 30?
2. Which U.S. city officially became a 'no-kill' city after achieving a pet rescue rate of more than 90%?
3. Which sporting legend donated $10 million to open health clinics in his hometown of Wilmington, North Carolina. His generous contribution means people who are either uninsured or underinsured, afford essential medical care.
4. A NASA rover successfully converted some of Mars's carbon-dioxide-rich atmosphere into oxygen in April. What is the name of the rover?
5. The United Nations officially declared 2021 the "Year of _____"?
6. In March, director Chloé Zhao made history by becoming the first Asian woman to win a Golden Globe for best director. What movie did she win for?
7. In March 2021, a breakthrough for paralyzed people happened at Brown University when they successfully transmitted wirelessly _____ to a computer for the first time.
8. As of 2021, what animal from China is off the endangered list?
9. Which 3 companies launched renewable vehicles to space and back in 2021?
10. Ratatouille: The TikTok Musical, which began as a somewhat sincere joke on the app, gave us hope for wholesome content by raising over a million dollars for whom?
11. For the first time, astronomers observed _____ bending behind a black hole — 800 million light years away from Earth.
12. October 20 of this year, on Pismo State Beach, 8,000 _____ were counted.
13. In October, the World Health Organization approved the first-ever vaccine against what disease?
14. Which American gymnast, dropped out of the Olympics spurring a healthy debate about mental health and athletes?
15. Which beloved sitcom had a reunion hosted by HBO and featured the entire cast?
16. Which iconic music group released their first album in 40 years?
17. "The Hill We Climb" was recited by the youngest inaugural poet. What is her name and age at the time?
18. News from Kenya. There was no poaching of what animal in 2021?
19. In spite of historic challenges, what industry is having a boom in sales?

