you are wrapped in love!

This shawl was made with love, just for you,
Each stitch a prayer, guiding you through.
I prayed for peace to fill your heart
And for friends' support to never part.
May comfort and calm find their way,
And hope and healing forever stay.

It's more than a shawl—it's a hug in disguise,
With countless stitches and love woven inside.
May it bring you warmth when the world feels cold,
A gentle embrace when life's hard to hold.
A hug to remind you how dearly you're adored,
A soothing touch when you're feeling unsure.
A prayer you can feel to carry you through,
A tender reminder that love surrounds you.

When you're feeling low, may it lift you high,
With a prayer in each stitch to help you get by.
And always remember, in all that you do,
You're cherished deeply, wrapped in love so true.
